Who we are

The Child Protection Response Center is a nationally accredited Child Advocacy Center located in Davenport, Iowa.

Our mission is to use evidence-based, best practices to provide a physically and emotionally safe environment for the children we serve, including a multi-disciplinary approach to child abuse assessment, intervention, investigation, and prosecution.

Along with medical exams and forensic interview, CPRC also provides medical and behavioral assessments for at-risk children with medication management for mental and behavioral diagnoses.

Backed by
National Children's Alliance®
Accredited Member

The Child Protection Response Center is proud to announce that on June 8, 2021, our Center was re-accredited by the National Children's Alliance. A lot of hard work and dedication from our staff and our multi-disciplinary partners went into this process and we are thankful for their support.

Final Thoughts

Thank You!

To everyone who has graciously contributed to Child Protection Response Center, including the generous grant from the Scott County Regional Authority.

CPRC is a non-profit 501(c)3 and accepts monetary donations, as well as gently used clothing, new hygiene products and gently used books.

Our office also partners with The Linus Project to offer handmade blankets and quilts to all children who enter our Center.
